

Classic meets modern

STATUS series includes tables designed to be used as stage table. Table's final composition is according to number of users that it is designed for.

With various finishing available they are a very good choice for their durability, functionality and aesthetic.

Modern design

Wooden frame

High comfort

Durability and functionality

STATUS

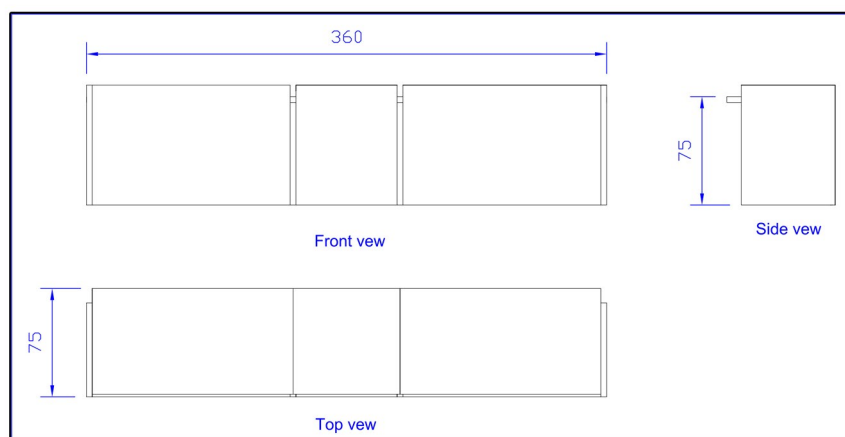

Optionals & versions

Finishing available in melamine, laminate or veneer.

Dimensions and composition according to specific project and custom demands.

Table could be equipped with cable housing system. Table's top could have holes for cables exit or special holes in order to house microphone and translation devices.

Dimensions, composition and layout are only indicative*